Letter Number 38
Experiencing Parabdhha is not Impediment to Achieving Devotional Love

Jayaguru

Nilachala Kutir
Puri (Odisha)
10-09-38
(December 24, 1931)

O my blessed one,

Parama shubhasirastambishesah–
(My ultimate holy blessings distinctively remain bestowed upon you.)

I have received your letter in time. I also received the card yesterday. The attendants of the Math and Ashram have undertaken the relief effort to some extent for those troubled and distressed due to flood. I have been busy with all that relief related work including frequently writing letters to different places, providing comments on the relief reports, etc. Hence I was not able to reply to your letter. Don't be disheartened by it. Perhaps I will have to visit all these places in North Bengal very soon. ****

I was saddened to learn that you've been sick. However, what shall I do? You have to endure the results of *prarbhdha*¹. It is not necessary to perform strict penance to achieve devotional love. The reason for practice is to purify your heart and concentrate your mind. Hence, there is no obstacle to achieving devotional-love even if the body is sick. Yes, the mind becomes weak due to the pains from the illness. I was delighted in learning that you are full of bliss. Practice of devotional-love involves mind; if mind is alright then everything will be okay. One day, you'll definitely achieve devotional-love. Keep your dependence (on God) intact no matter where and what situation you are in, at any time. Have faith, what I have germinated in you, will not go in vain. One day, you will certainly achieve devotional-love.

It is not right to wish for death. Depend on Him for everything. Realizing that disease-despair, pains-sorrows are His gift, accept them humbly. You have to leave your worldly burdens (attachments) only here, in this world. You have to exhaust your karma in this land-of-karma (physical world). The soul gets purified after the exhaustion of all the karmic obligations. Don't be perturbed by the sorrows. Don't lose sight of your goal in disease and despair. Practice tolerance with patience. Remain immersed in His divine name and form.

I will go to Howrah before bhakta-sammilani². When you come to Calcutta, meet me in Halisahar. I am well now. Rest is all fine. My blessings are with all of you.

Well-wisher
